Program Title	Finding Your Voice
Brief Program Description	As a well published children's book illustrator, I share my world of making books in kid-understandable way...draw a large picture for them to music (give away at the end of the program)....move the group into a live drawing time where they follow me as I open their imagination and help them explore finding their creative voice through drawing. Anyone can draw...this is not about a program just for kids that want to be artists. At the end I give away some of my signed books. Parents very welcome to be in with us. Fast paced and a lot of fun and very good reviews by all.
Length of Program	45 to 60 minutes
Type of Presentation	In Person
Age	Children
Fees	$250 per program (includes everything) I do prefer having as many libraries in the same area schedule so that I can come to farther away places. Example is the Tulsa library system has me scheduled for a week's time (morning and afternoon programs). I am on the Arkansas Arts in Ed roster.

Character Education

The Moral of the Story

Bobby Norfolk
Emmy Winning Storyteller

Kick your character education curriculum into high gear with Bobby's signature program! His highly energetic, dynamic style ignites a new enthusiasm in both children and young adults. Key concepts include:

- ♦ Respect
- ♦ Cooperation
- ♦ Honesty
- ♦ Self-Esteem
- ♦ Responsibility
- ♦ Tolerance
- ♦ Self Discipline

Bobby Norfolk is the co-author of The Moral of the Story, Folktales for Character Development, a handbook for enhancing character education programs with traditional tales. Drawing on decades of experience in the field, he fills this program with entertaining stories of characters who face ethical choices. He focuses on the comic consequences of their decisions, leading to serious contemplation of the importance of behavior. Additionally, he draws from his personal experience, sharing tales of overcoming adversity and making responsible life choices. (All Ages.)

Program Title	Songs, Stories, and a Boingy Boingy Thing, a Clack-ity Clack Thing and a Noseflute!
Brief Program Description	Mike's kids' shows are legendary. His dynamic performance style keeps the audience, both young and old, entranced. Stories and 5 different musical instruments make his shows kids will talk about for quite a while. STORYTELLING - Mike is a renowned storyteller with the ability to reach multi-age audiences. Whether telling his stories of growing up with his next-door neighbor Denny or relating traditional tales, Mike blends stories and music to make a great show. (All ages) HUGO'S COMIN' TO TOWN - Mike is really Hugo Kringle, Santa Claus's younger brother and he makes a great holiday program. Unlike his famous brother who typically talks to one kid at a time, Hugo sings secular holiday songs and tells stories of growing up with the boy who will become Santa Claus. Hugo handles the whole room at once eliminating the need for side projects at the holiday program. This program works best for the 8 and under crowd. Preschool is more than possible. Mike can also do a Kid's Christmas Program of songs and stories without Hugo.

Brief Program Description

Will Parker puts on a fun, interactive show for the whole family! Accompanying himself on guitar and harmonica, he plays original songs for kids from his award-winning children's albums. Throughout the show, the audience engages through singing-along, dancing, high-fiving, imaginative play and they even help Will create an improvised song through their suggestions and input on "what should happen next." For summer 2023 reading theme, All Together Now, Will plans to incorporate new original material about friendship and kindness. He will also engage the kids in conversation about the unifying power of music and how it can bring people together to have special, unique experiences which can inspire positive change.
